Mr. Lotus Sullivan's Collection

We are proud to be detailed by Mr. Lotus Sullivan to sell his coins for him. I can easily say, that his cents are by far the most beautiful I have seen, and I have seen plenty! And that does not say anything about the rest of his superb coins!

Mr. Sullivan has not been a collector for a long time. He does quite a bit of travelling, and one day, when in Indianapolis, he noted a penny collector card in a store window. He bought the card and "he had the bug." Starting with an ordinary set of cents, he gradually improved and increased his collection until it developed to what it is today.

He is a member of the American Numismatic Association, and past member of the Indianapolis Coin Club, (gave the latter up due to the distance from his home).

His collection has been displayed at a great many important places, and undoubtedly many of you bidders have seen the coins and admired them.

They were on display at the American Numismatic Association Convention in 1944 at Chicago. They have been on display in many cities, Cincinnati, Louisville, and many other towns and in the vicinity, before Lions Clubs, High Schools and on many private occasions. The Indianapolis Coin Club has had these coins on display several times.

There are many pieces in this collection that deserve special mention. All of the cents before 1800 are superb. The Great rarities are all superb. It would be difficult for any collection to have any pieces better than those Mr. Sullivan is now selling. The Proofs marked Brilliant are real mirror like. All proofs have Sharp wire edges. Indeed, there is not a coin in the collection that would not materially enhance your collection.

Mr. Sullivan is not giving up coin collecting. He is selling these superb pieces in order to let other collectors acquire the pleasure he has in collecting and owning them.
